Teacress, 10 to 1, Takes a Similar Event for Sprinters - Mary Morris Also Succeeds, With Black Prince, 20 to 1, Beating Humo-Five Favorites Lose.

Five favorites were beaten at Brighton track yesterday in the presence of Beach track yesterday in the presence of another crowd of 12,000 persons. There was no stake feature, but two handicaps sup-plied the deficiency. A. L. Aste's Alwin, recently purchased out of a selling race, was the only successful first choice. He was hammered down to 11 to 10 in the handicap at nine furlongs, and was taken to the front by Tommy Burns as soon as the gate went up. Before three-quarters of a mile had been covered it was a two horse affair, with T. C. McDowell's Geranium, 5 to 1, pressing Alwin hotly for the leadership. In the stretch both Burns and Martin went to the whip, and in a smashing drive Alwin won by a length in 1:52 2-5. Geranium was ten lengths in front of Voladay, 15 to 1, with Mattie Corbett's Out of Reach, carrying 126 pounds and going up in the betting from 2 to 1 to 16 to 5, a poor Teacress, a 10 to 1 shot, landed the other handicap, at six furlongs, in a drive by three parts of a length from E. E. Smathers's Burparts of a length from E. E. Smathers's Burleigh, 3 to 1, who carried top weight. Lady Uncas, who was a coupled favorite with Ancestor at 8 to 5, ran third, four lengths back. Ancestor, who was close behind, received a bungling ride from Miller. Czaraphine, 6 to 1, with Hildebrand up, proved a rank failure. The time was 1:13 2-5.

E. E. Smathers's Ala Russell, a 3 to 5 favorite.

was disgracefully beaten in the first race, for was disgracefully occurred two-year-olds, six furlongs. The winner turned up in L. O. Appleby's Mary Morris, backed down to 10 to 1, who took the race in a drive by a length in 1:14. August Belmont's a drive by a length in 1.14. August Belmont's Ladsarion, 6 to 1, was second, beating S. S. Brown's Youth, 6 to 1, by a head.
Kiamesha, a heavily backed favorite in the thirdrace, for three-year-olds, was another the thirdrace, for three-year-olds, was another bitter disappointment. She tried to run out on the lower turn, when in the lead, and Hildebrand beat her over the head with his whip. In the backstretch she continued to bear out, and finally sulked so that she dropped farout of it. Humo, 8 to 5 second choice, would probably have won had it not been for the fact that Wilhe Knapp had him in a pocket a greater part of the way. At the wire Black Prince, a 20 to 1 shot, beat Humo a head, with Don Royal, 12 to 1, a length and a half back and a head in front of Head Dance. The time was 147.

and a head in front of Head Dance. The time was 1:47.

There was rough riding of all sorts in the fifth event, at a mile and a sixteenth. Marty Bergen, who rode Buttons, had a particularly hard time of it, but managed to get third money, a head in front of Woodford Clay's Memories, the favorite, who was backed down from 4 to 1 to 11 to 5. J. L. Holland's Line of Life, backed down to 6 to 1, was the winner, McDaniel getting him home with a length to spare in 1:474-5. Martin got the place with 8t. Breeze, a 50 to 1 shot, by a head from Buttons. Jerry Lynch was practically left at the place.

Buttons. Jerry Lynch was practically at the Dest.

T. D. Sullivan's Caprice, the favorite in the last race, for two-year-old fillies, five and a half furlongs, finished so far out of the money that the Tammany crowd got tired of looking for her. W. B. E. Lockwood's Deviltree, 18 to 5, ran a fine race and won by two lengths from August Belmont's Bivouac, 6 to 1, with T. J. Gaynor's Argentine, 6 to 1, a length away. Sydney Paget's Watergrass, 7 to 1, was a length out of the money. The time was 1:082-5. The summaries:

SPORT AT OLD SAUGUS.

Many Heats Necessary to Decide Winners of Harness Races.

BOSTON, Mass., July 21.—With two races left unfinished and three regular events on the card, the crowd that went to Old Saugus this afternoon had their fill of light harness racing. One of the surprises in the 2:25 racing. One of the surprises in the 2:25 trot, left unfinished yesterday, was the victory of Chestnut. Mixedwood satisfied the talent by taking the unfinished 2:17 pace after being beaten out by Isabell in the fifth heat.

W. J. Lewis took the 2:17 trot in straight heats and Gracie Kellar duplicated the performance in the 2:10 trot. Gloria and La Pointa furnished some excellent sport in the 2:11 pace, the former taking first money, six heats being necessary to decide the event. Summary:

AMERICANS LOSE.

Larned Beaten by Smith and Ward by H. L. Doherty in Challenge Round.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, July 21.—The challenge round for the Dwight F. Davis international lawn tennis cup between the American team and the British holders of the trophy was begun at Wimbledon to-day and the two matches played resulted in British victories.

The weather was sultry and there was only a moderate attendance at the tournament, Many of those present were Americans. S. H. Smith the Welsh champion and chals, H. Smith the weish champion and chairlenger in the recent All-England championship tournament, beat William A. Larned, former American champion, 2 sets to 1. The score was 6-4, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4. The feature of the contest was the hard driving and beautifully accurate placing of the ball by beautifully, accurate placing of the ball by Smith.

The second contest of the day also resulted in a British victory. H. L. Doherty beat Holcombe Ward, the American champion, 3 sets to 2. Ward took the first two and then lost the remaining three, weakening distinctly toward the finish. The score was 7-9, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-0.

Both Larned's and Ward's magnificent services frequently baffled their opponents. Larned's weakest point was his net play, which did not suffice against Smith's powerful driving. Doherty's all round proficiency gave him the victory in spite of Ward's brilliant opening. In the deciding set the umpire gave a ball outside which was obviously inside, thus scoring an important point to Doherty. The latter showed dissatisfaction and deliberately smashed the next ball away outside, drawing prolonged approval from the spectators.

To-morrow Ward and Beals C. Wright will meet the Doherty brothers in the doubles. The draw will bring Larned against H. L. Doherty and Ward against Smith in the concluding contests in the singles.

The Americans must win all three of the remaining contests in order to capture the tropby.

The American players will sail for home on the steamer Oceanic on July 26.

Squadron A Wins at Great Neck With a

Man Injured-Falls at Newport In the second match for the challenge cup at the Great Neck Polo Club tournament yesterday the Squadron A team won from the Country Club of Westchester by 23% to 18, The troopers received 19 goals by handicap and the result once more demonstrated that and the result once more demonstrated that with hooking mallets allowed the class team may no longer make up such wide differences in ratings. It is probable that a radical change will be made in all the individual ratings by the handicap committee this fall.

In closing the third period King of the Squadron team was so badly shaken up by a collision that he had to drop out of the game, and as an offset Rawlins retired from the Country Cub side, the fourth period being played with but three on each team. The positions and handicaps were:

Newport, July 21.—The game of polo this

J. H. Hunt, I; R. C. Lawrence, I. Total, 5.

NEWPORT, July 21.—The game of polo this afternoon at the field of the Westchester Polo Club, between two teams of members of the club, was very exciting in that during the play three members were thrown from their mounts, but as an exhibition of polo it was not up to the standard.

T. A. Havemeyer was the first to get a fall he being thrown over his pony's head, by the animal stumbling, and shortty afterward H. S. Kip was thrown by his pony turning too sharply.

In the third period Paul Rainey's pony was stunned by being hit in the forehead by a polo ball, and in the pony's staggering Mr. Rainey was thrown. Neither of the gentiemen was hurt. The teams were made up of blues and yellows, the former winning by one goal.

WHEELOCK'S LOSING PLUNGE.

METS PRESIDENT WAGERS $10, 000 ON ALA RUSSELL.

Dave Johnson and Lewisohn Back Alwin Heavily-Yeager Wins $5,000 on Deviltree—Starter Suspends Marty Bergen—New Trainer for Louis V. Bell.

George Wheelock's surprising run of ill luck continues. It seems impossible for him to cash a bet, but he is plodding along, confident that he will soon reach a turn in the long lane. Wheelock regarded Ala Russell, owned by E. E. Smathers, a sure thing in the first race yesterday. The Russell filly had won nearly all of her previous races in the most impressive manner and the field that she was meeting in this instance was not con-sidered much in point of dass. So Wheelock plunged to the extent of $10,000, taking 3 to 5, and making one bet of $3,000 to $5,000 s to 5, and making one bet of $3,000 to $5,000 with Bill Cowen. Smathers also had a big bet on the filly, while a cinch player tiamed Seidenbach bet $1,000 a place on her at 1, to 4. But she ran the worst race of her career and finished next to last. That was practically the end of Wheelook's operations for the day. Meanwhile a killing was pulled off in this race Meanwhile a killing was pulled on in this race with L. O. Appleby's Mary Morris, who was played from 20 to 1 down to 10. It was estimated that fully $50,000 was taken from the books on her success. The clubhouse people got a large slice of this amount, with Sim Deimel, Sig Levy, J. H. Berk, Billy Timmons and others also having a piece of the good thing. Ladsarion was played by Sol Lich-tenstein and Frank McDougall, with S. S. Brown's Youth supported by Eole Pearsall, J. Keime, Eddie Burke and Bob Tucker. Jack McGinnis split a wager on Aviston.

Nobody of prominence cashed on Teacress

Nobody of prominence cashed on leacress in the second race, but there was a great plunge on Smathers's Burleigh; who was closed at 9 to 5 a moment before the horses were off. Smathers made a good bet and so did his trainer, Sam Hildreth, with all of the clubhouse agents aboard, together with Mark Riordan, Frank Moore and others. Lady Uncas and Ancestor, coupled, were backed heavily by John Walters, Bob Rose, Sol Lichtenstein, Walter Slopher, Bill Brown and Sam Manheimer. Fred Eshner took Lucy Young third and Joe Hayman had $500 on Casraphine. Billy Timmons had only a small bet on his horse Black Prince, who won the third race at 20 to 1. But if Humo had captured this race the books would have been well soaked. The biggest bets on Humo were placed by Eddie McDonaid, Charley Cash and Julius Eddie McDonald, Charley Cash and Julius Frank. The clubhouse went to Kiamesha with extreme confidence, Joe Murphy, Pat Sheedy, Bill Brown and P. McGrath also betting on the Esher filly.

with extreme confidence, Joe Murphy, Pat Sheedy, Bill Brown and P. McGrath also betting on the Esher filly.

There was another big and successful play on Alwin in the fourth event. The horse's owner, Tony Aste, bet only $500 on him, but Dave Johnson and Jesse Lewisohn each wagered $5,000. M. Ray, Zach Frost, Billy DuBois, Sol Lichtenstein, Mark Riordan and Frank McKee also bet on the winner. There was one clubhouse commission of $5,000 on Out of Reach, who was also backed by Joe Murphy and Dick Doggett. Kehailan was played by Abe Gruber, William Applegate, Eole Pearsall and Fred Eshner and Frank McDougall and Joe Rose went to Geranium. While the betting on the fifth race was under way it was announced in the ring that Military Man was a doubtful starter, and many of the layers waited until his appearance at the post was assured before going on with the posting of odds. It seems that Military Man was late in coming to the track, for which his owner, T. G. Ferguson, was fined $50 by the stewards. Lewisohn bad made a bet on him, but he decided to hedge by playing W. R. Rogers's Caronel, a horse that was tipped all over the track and was that was tipped all over the track and was that was tipped all over the track and was that was tipped all over the track and was that was tipped all over the track and was that was tipped all over the track and was that was tipped all over the track and was that was tipped all over the track and was the post of the track a While the betting on the fifth race was under way it was announced in the ring that Military Man was a doubtful starter, and many of the layers waited until his appearance at the post was assured before going on with the posting of odds. R. Rogers's Caronel, a horse that was tipped all over the track and was sent out over the wires to Western cities early in the day as a real good thing. Caronel, however, went up in the betting, and his owner was, incidentally, fined $50 by the stewards for not having a licensed trainer on hand to saddle him in the paddock. Rogers is a trainer himself, but he has not yet received a license. The smart money went on Memories at the last moment. Bob Tucker, E. R. Bradley, Henry Schopps, John Steimer, Fred Lowe, R. Angarola and Sam Stedeker betting on the Sir Dixon mare. Fred Calhoun and Tom Lloyd were among those who fell for Caronel, with Smith Keime playing Military Man, Charley Fox taking Ascension and Fred Eshner putting a show bet on Jerry Lynch. John W. Diestel cashed a bet of $7,000 to $1,000 made with Bill Cower, Tom Costigan and Billy Hayes also supporting this winner.

Joe Yeager won $5,000 on Devitiree in the last race. Sol Lichtenstein and the Sullivans bet on Caprice, Eddie Burke too Argentine, Dave Gideon bet on La France and Tyler, the Humming Bird, placed $1,000 on Watersrast.

Dave Gideon bet on La France and Tyler, the Humming Bird, placed $1,000 on Waterstrass.

Bookmaker Reilly, one of the original ten outsiders in the first line, dropped out and Al Hanf took his place. Henry Harris and F. Brindle retired from the Meta' line.

Robert Pinkerton has returned from a long trip abroad, but he will not assume charge of the racetrack police until fall. He is in much improved health.

A. B. Hudson had a big bet on Ala Russell but saved himself with a place wager on Ladsarion.

Frank Farrell came to the track with Hal Chase, the crack first baseman of the New York Americatus, who was hit in the face with a batted ball in Detroit recently. Chase has been suffering with severe pain in his head since the accident, but is on the high road to recovery.

St. Breeze, who ran second in the fifth race with 50 to 1 about him, was so stiff and sore when he came out of the paddock for the usual warm up that he was sent up and down the homestretch twice in order to limber him up. Those who were sharp enough to see this unusual proceeding hurried to the ring to put down filers at the big price.

Marty Bergen came to grief at the post in the fifth race. He tried to get a running start with Buttons, for which Mars Cassidy suspended him for the rest of the meeting. This was Bergen's third mount and he rode in the plucklest sort of fashion.

Although Louis V. Bell recently denied a report that he had severed relations with his trainer, J. H. McCormick, there was a notice on the blackboard yesterday to the effect that L. J. Schlosser and not McCormick was the trainer of Ivanhoe, who carried the Bell silks in the third race. Schlosser has been foreman for A. J. Joyner for a long time.

It was said on excellent authority last night that a compromise will be effected between time.

winter by which alternate race meetings will be held.

Although Trainer John W. Rogers would not consent to allow Artful to come down from Saratoga to meet Sysouby in a match race at the Beach, he has shipped Pegasus to Brighton to carry the Whitney colors in the Junior Stakes to-day.

Puddio' McDaniel, who has been on the hospital list for some time, got back into the game yesterday with two winners—Teacress and Line of Life.

T. J. Gaynor's Argentine, who ran third in the last race, is a black filly by Sir Dixon—Elopement, who had started only once before. She will improve.

Watergrass, who ran a fair race in this event, is by Watercress—Miss Clay, and has been doing some sensational work in her trials.

Caprice has been a costly investment for the Sullivans.

Alwin has run four races at the Beach and won three of them. He was in receipt of four pounds from both Geranium and Voladay yesterday, six from Out of Reach and eight from Kehailan.

Billy Karrick, trainer of the Oneck stable, could not account for Kiamesha's poor race. He said that he thought he had a high class mare in her after her race on Wednesday.

The Cavanagh special train for Saratoga will leave the Grand Central Station on Sunday, July 30, at 1:30 P. M. Tickets can be purchased from John C. Cavanagh until July 27.

Close Harness Baces at Detroit.

DETROIT. July 21.—Really the bast racing of Windsor meeting came to-day in the first heat of the 2:17 pace and the first and second heats of the 2:05 pace. In each of the three events mentioned the distance between the horses was so small that impartial observers thought them dead heats, and partisans declared vociferously in favor of the equine which each had backed with the coln of the realm. From the fact, that no one objected to the final decision it should be gathered that the decision was fair. The heats were intensely close. The three fastest heats of the year were paced in the 2:05 class to-day, two heats being better than 2:07. Summarles: Close Harness Races at Detroit.

BRITT AND SULLIVAN MEET. Twenty Round Fight Draws Big Crowd -Britt Favorite.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—Jimmy Britt and Kid Sullivan of Washington were greeted by a large crowd at Woodward's Pavilion, this city, to-night when they came together for a twenty round bout. Since Joe Gans has refused to meet anybody at 133 pounds, the lightweight limit, Britt has been looked upon by many as the champion in this class. Despite the fact that this was Sullivan's first appearance in San Francisco and that he is but little known, betting on the mill was spirited. Britt ruled favorite at the fancy price of 10 to 4, and at these figures a lot of money changed hands. There was a lot of money on Sullivan in sight, the bulk coming from the East. Among the local men it was doped that Sullivan did not have much of a chance and that he would prove an easy victim. A few of the nervy ones wagered that Sullivan would win on a knockout because of his supposed hitting powers. Most of the speculation was done on the number of rounds the contest would called for a bout at 133 pounds, weigh in at 6 o'clock in the evening. Sullivan was one pound below the weight, while Britt just balanced the scales. It seems that Britt had found it harder to get to the weight limit than his opponent. Some of Britt's friends contended that he had not taken Sullivan as seriously as he should and that he did not prepare as vigorously as is his he did not prepare as vigorously as is his custom. But his looks belied this statement. The tickets to see the mill were quoted at $10, $7.50, $5. $3 and $1, according to the location of seats.

The Chicagos were in the other, eleven innings long, and won from the Bostons. The New Yorks beat St. Louis and gained on the Pittsburgs, who won and lost in Philadelphia. The Chicagos exchanged places with the Philadelphias, the latter dropping back. The results:

NEW YORK (N. L.), 14: ST. LOUIS (N. L.), 2. The Cardinals were a jest at the Polo Grounds yesterday, and the New Yorks climbed all over their frames. The wicked hitting of the champions had the St. Louis men groggy from the start, and they stumbled and staggered and reeled. Jack Taylor's pitching was torn to pieces by the native talent, and his support was just about as stanch as his pitching. The Cardinals were not able to keep platoons of New York were not able to keep platoons of new form men from getting on the bases or to hold them back when they were on. Mike Grady was a frost at turning back base stealers, and the Knickerbockers frished around the highways with never a care. Filmsy fielding and decrepit hitting on one side and savage globe splitting on the other made the game a stampede. McGraw gave several of his substitutes a chance, and the crowd wondered where Archie Grahem was a knockout because of his supposed hitting powers. Most of the speculation was done on the number of rounds the contest would last.

Sullivan has been fighting but a few years, but in that time he has made a name for himself. He fought a slashing draw with Young Corbett and had the better of a six round bout with Rattling Nelson. Sullivan is a rugged boy, but lacks the cleverness of Britt. He proved in his fights with Nelson and Corbett that he can take a good beating.

Both men trained very hard for the encounter. They came to town early to-day from their training quarters and appeared in excellent shape. Britt looked exceptionally well. He seemed to be stronger than ever and has not lost any of his cleverness. He had not the slightest doubt that he would be able to outbox Sullivan He admitted that he did not regard the Easterner as a "cinch," and the way he battled demonstrated this.

Sullivan is built somewhat on the order of Terry McGovern. He is a rusher, willing to take a couple of blows to get home one solid punch. Sullivan had been preparing a long time for the battle and was ably coached by Joe Gans, who was in his conner. He said: "I look upon Britt as a wonderful man. But at that I think I can beat him. Anyway I'm going to try mighty hard to do so, and if I loose I will not complain. I am anxious to get to the top of the heap in my class and can do so only by beating Britt. The Cincinnatis began to show familiarity with McIntyre's benders in the seventh inning of yesterday's game at Washington Park, and in the eighth Scanlon displaced him. The score was then a tie. It remained a tie throughout the eighth, ninth, tenth and eleventh innings, but in the twelfth the Reds broke the tie all to pieces. Odwell begin the fun by drawing four balls. Stein-elit hammered a three bagger far afield, which brought Odwell home standing up. Phelps pushed out a single that accounted for steinfeldt, and Harper jostled Scanlon for a one sacker. Huggins hit safely, and two more runs came. The Brooklyns tightened their cinches for their half of the twelfth, but all they got out of it was a bank. The score:

 CHICAGO (A. L.), 2; NEW YORK (A. L.), 1. CHICAGO, July 21.—New York had Chicago down and out to-day 1 to 0 in the last half of the ninth, two men gone, nobody on bases and two strikes on the batter. Two minutes later the score was tied. Three innings later New York was beaten. It was one of the season's most sensational games, and kept the crowd yelling madity all the way.

Both Orth and Altrock pitched finely, and both received support which, despite the errors made, was nothing short of superb. For five innings there was nothing doing in the scoring line. Orth began the sixth with a short fly, which was muffed by Green, Al going to second. Conroy sacrificed, and then the "aqueeze" was worked perfectly, Orth fitting home. Then till the ninth the teams worked furfously. Two of the locals were gone in the ninth when Isbell hit far down the field and pulled up at third just as Keeler's throw came in. Jones rose to the situation with a fierce wallop into right, tying the score, and getting caught sliding into third.

Then the extra innings began. The tenth and eleventh were hurried by and New York did nothing in the twelfth. Donahue led off for Chicago with a rap which jumped over Powers's head. Williams and Orth handled the ball with great speed, but were just too late. Two men died on infield grounders, sending Donahue to third. It was up to McFarland, the heavy hitting catcher. He had two strikes called when he met the ball. Some enthusiasts maintain that the ball is going yet. The score:

Mike Donlin has made ten hits so far this week Mike Grady has an ideal position at the bat-erect, neonstrained, heels together. Charife Nichols pitched his first game for the Quakers yesterday, and his good work cut the Pirates down. In these days when the Pirates are pressing clos on the heels of the New Yorks, the score board watched anxiously at the Polo Grounds. watched anxiously at the Polo Grounds.

Morgan Bowman, captain of the Yale baseball team, which won the intercollegiate championship this year, is to take a position as an instructor in Hill School. Bowman will step into a place vacated by Edwin J. Clapp, the Yale hurdler. Bowman will teach certain subjects in the scheol and will atto help in athietics, although he is not paid for this latter service. this latter service.

Catcher Peltz was fined $30 yesterday and suspended for three days for uncouth talk to the umpire at the Polo Grounds in the game of July 16. His punishment came under the new system, that, at a hearing before President Pulliam, at which the player had a chance to submit his defense before action was taken. Peltz is the first player to be suspended since the famous Boston decision.
